

What To Bring: Citizenship & Marriage

- If the name on your green card is different than your current legal name: Do you have the documents that legally changed your name?
(examples: Marriage certificate, divorce decree, or court document)
- If you are applying for U.S. citizenship based on marriage to a U.S. Citizen, do you have:
 - ✓ Proof your spouse has been a citizen for the past three (3) years
(examples: spouse's birth certificate, naturalization certificate, certificate of citizenship, U.S. Passport, or Form FS240)
 - ✓ Current marriage certificate
 - ✓ If your current spouse was married before, proof that all prior marriages have been terminated (divorce decrees, annulments, or death certificates)
 - ✓ Documents showing that you and your spouse are still living together
(examples: tax returns, bank statements, leases, mortgages, birth certificates for your children, IRS tax return transcript for the last three (3) years)
- If you have been married more than one time, do you have:
 - ✓ Proof that all prior marriages have been terminated (divorce decrees, annulments, or death certificates)
- If you have a dependent spouse or children who do NOT live with you, do you have:
 - ✓ Any court order to provide financial support AND
 - ✓ Evidence of your financial support
(examples: cancelled checks, money order receipts, evidence of wage garnishments, or a letter from a parent or guardian who cares for your children)